

NEW YORK, Sept. 11, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- Apple announced its new iPhone on September 10 - The iPhone 5S and iPhone 5C. With fingerprint sensor on Home button, 12-Megapixel camera, more available colors and iOS 7, the new iPhone will certainly amaze its users in the middle of September. It is the best time for you to apply for the new smart phone and choose software to protect your data, says EaseUS Software.

With more than nine years of data recovery experience, EaseUS data recovery software for Windows is proven as one of the best data recovery solution. After EaseUS's non-stop development and improvement, they have expanded data recovery software to iOS and the Mac OS X platform. EaseUS Software, the leading provider of data backup and disaster recovery solution, now allows its users to back up and recover data from the newly released iPhone 5S and iPhone 5C.

EaseUS iPhone backup and recovery software - EaseUS MobiSaver - enables users to recover lost or mistakenly deleted Contacts, Notes, Photos, Messages, etc. from both iPhone 5S and 5C. Simply connect your iOS devices to the computer, launch the program and all your lost data can be retrieved in a few seconds. It fully supports iOS 7, and you can also use it to back up data from your old iPhone 4/4S/5 and recover it to the new iPhone 5S/5C.

Key Features:

- Support Windows and Mac OS X.
- Support all iOS devices: iPhone 5S/5C/5/4S/4, iPad and iPod touch 5th Generation.
- Recover directly from iOS device as well as from iTunes backup.
- Recover and backup 12 data types: Videos, Photos, Messages, Calendar, Notes, Contacts, etc.
- Preview function before recovery.
