

Lee Tran Liang Wang LLP Receives CMCP's Client Service Award

Written by Australian Business

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- The California Minority Counsel Program (CMCP) announced Lee Tran Liang & Wang LLP (LTLW) as the recipient of the 2013 Minority-Owned Law Firm Client Service Award. The award is awarded to the CMCP minority-owned law firm that has best demonstrated outstanding client service. Several LTLW clients, including Fortune 500 companies, strongly supported the firm's nomination by praising the firm's outstanding service and results-oriented approach.

"We are very grateful for and humbled by this award," said partner and firm co-founder James Lee. "As we continue our tremendous growth to become one of the premier litigation firms, awards such as CMCP's Client Service Award validate our efforts to exceed client expectations and satisfaction and for that, we are immensely thankful."

About LTLW Attorneys Lee Tran Liang & Wang LLP (LTLW) is a California-based law firm focusing on business and complex litigation and counseling. The firm's attorneys have practiced at prominent law firms including Quinn Emanuel
