

Yiwu Fair Canton Fair: Must-visits for Overseas Buyers

Written by Australian Business

YIWU, China, Oct. 19, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- The 114th China Import and Export Fair (Canton Fair) opened on Oct. 15. As one of the world's most influential expos in China, it has attracted many overseas buyers and visitors. The 19th Yiwu Fair, which enjoys equal popularity as the Canton Fair, will also be held from Oct. 21 to 25

. According to border inspection authorities, within three days, the Canton Fair received more than 100,000 visitors from over 50 countries, including

Japan

, the U.S.,

South Korea

Singapore

Malaysia

Australia

, the UK,

Canada

India

and

the Philippines

Foreign businessmen visiting the Canton Fair will have the rare opportunity to concurrently visit the Canton Fair and Yiwu Fair. Given that the Canton Fair goes until early November, overseas buyers interested in the China commodities business will find it convenient. At the same time, with faster transportation, round-trips between Yiwu and Guangzhou are easier, meaning twice the business opportunities. Recently, the Transportation Bureau of Yiwu introduced "Transportation Support during 2013 Yiwu Fair," which added bus and taxi capacities for the Yiwu Fair -- making transport for buyers easy between the two fairs.

To meet the above needs and make it easy for overseas buyers to visit the upcoming Yiwu Fair, organizers have arranged all the details, including visiting arrangements like VIP channels and foreign language services for domestic and overseas buyers. Other arrangements include flights, hotel reservations, and shuttle buses.

To attract more overseas buyers to the Yiwu Fair, organizers have established a special subsidy. Buyers meeting the following three conditions can get 1,200 RMB for their flight tickets: 1) Visiting the Canton Fair or Hong Kong Mega Show 2013; 2) Entering China after Oct. 1 ; 3) Having transport receipts to Yiwu. For overseas buyers visiting or about to visit the Canton Fair, attending the 19th Yiwu Fair has become effortless. The Yiwu Fair, for its greater specialization, has become a forceful power in drawing overseas buyers to visit. Market competition and unlimited business opportunities have attracted buyers from over 150 countries. If you are in China for the Canton Fair, don't miss the Yiwu Fair! We warmly welcome all domestic and overseas visitors.
