

NEW YORK, Sept. 11, 2013 /PRNewswire-iReach/ -- For Shawn Carter, otherwise known as Hov, the Greatest of All-Time, or

, entertaining is all he knows how to do. The rapper, restaurant owner, clothing creator, sports agent and owner does a little of everything and along with wife, Beyoncé, make up the first couple of hip hop. Earlier this year, Jay-Z released his 12th solo album,

Magna Carta

and the Holy Grail.□

The album has already gone certified platinum twice and his latest tour will run from November through January and hit many of the biggest arenas in the United States

Jay-Z has already been touring around the United States this year with Justin Timberlake, mixing sets with his partner. The song and the tour possibly led to a new group of fans flocking towards Hov for his upcoming tour. There has not been any announcements regarding who will be joining the tour with the Grammy winner this fall and winter, but with collaborations in the past with R. Kelly, The Roots, Linkin Park, Rihanna, Kanye West

Suit and Tie

, Alicia Keys

, T.I.,

Lil Wayne

, Timberlake and of course, his wife Beyoncé, fans never know who might pop by for a surprise appearance.

Jay-Z has been putting out music for his mainstream fans since 1996 album, Reasonable Doubt. His career began to take off in 1998 with the release of Vol. 2... Hard Knock Life, his first No. 1 album. On that record, Hov released some of his most popular singles to date including Can I Get A... featuring Amil and Ja Rule, Hard Knock Life at Ghetto Anthem and Money, Cash, Hoes featuring DMX. Fans attending the Magna Carter Holy Grail tour have the chance to hear these songs, as well as other popular album-topping songs like 03 Bonnie & Clyde featuring Beyoncé, Dirt Off Your Shoulder, Swagga Like Us featuring T.I., Lil Wayne and West, Ni--as in Paris featuring West and Holy Grail featuring Timberlake.

The 43-year-old star has sold more than 50 million albums to date and the hip hop mogul continues to find ways to re-invent himself and his career. When he and two close friends, Dam on Dash and Kareem "Biggs" Burke founded Roc-A-Fella Records, little did anyone know how big the company would become and how popular Jay-Z would get. Jay-Z is considered one of the greatest lyricists in the history of hip hop music, but his impressive credentials don't end there.

During his career in the entertainment business, he was also the CEO of Def Jam Recordings, co-founded The 40/40 Club – a sports bar, first in Manhattan, followed by restaurants in Atlantic City, Las Vegas and at the Barclays Center, the home of the Brooklyn Nets. The Nets are a team that Jay-Z is a minority owner of and most recently, founded Roc Nation Sports, an agency in which he is now certified to represent Major League Baseball and National Basketball Association players in their pursuit of money-rich contracts.
