

MIDDLEBURY, Conn., Sept. 30, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- iSend has been named to the Marcum Tech Top 40, an annual compilation of the 40 fastest growing technology companies in Connecticut as determined by The Connecticut Technology Council (CTC) and Marcum LLP. Selection was based on the percentage revenue growth over four years.

This is the second year in a row iSend has made the Marcum Tech Top 40. iSend was named Connecticut's fastest growing technology company overall in 2012, and this year was named the top company in the New Media/Internet/Telecom category.

iSend's president and CEO, Steve LaBella, credits the international business community's support and acceptance of iSend's business model with the company's outstanding revenue growth.

"We continue to forge strategic, direct relationships with the world's leading mobile carriers and retailers," said LaBella. "Each partnership extends our footprint both in terms of purchasers of our electronic payment services and the loved ones they support across borders."

This year's Marcum Tech Top 40 identified the fastest growing Connecticut companies in the categories of Advanced Manufacturing, Energy/Environment/Green Technology, IT Services, Life Sciences, New Media/Internet/Telecom and Software. Awards were presented to each category's top performer in terms of percentage revenue growth over the years 2009–2012, during which iSend realized 3,145 percent revenue growth.

To qualify for the Marcum Tech Top 40, companies must have had operating revenues of at least $50,000 in 2009 and $3,000,000 in 2012, be headquartered in Connecticut, and own proprietary technology or proprietary intellectual property that contributes to a significant portion of the company's operating revenues; or devotes a significant proportion of revenues to the research and development of technology.
