

NEW YORK, Oct. 4, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- NEC CASIO Mobile Communications is proud to announce their Water Sport Adventure promotional campaign. The promotional campaign-launching October 1, 2013 – demonstrates the rugged capabilities of the CASIO G'zOne Commando® 4G LTE smartphone and its compatibility with the G-SHOCK watch (GB6900AA-1). The promotional campaign merges toughness and innovation while furthering G'zOne's ongoing commitment to action sports.

This contest offers a chance to win a Watersport Adventure which includes two nights accommodation in a four-star San Diego, CA hotel, a $200 Visa card for expenses and two watersport activity packages courtesy of supercooladventures.com. No purchase is necessary to enter to win.

Additionally, for Commando® 4G LTE users, CASIO G'zOne will be giving away a G-SHOCK watch (GB6900AA-1) to the first 500 Commando® 4G LTE users who register for this promotion. This watch enhances the capabilities and features of the Commando® 4G LTE, allowing quick access to important notifications, all in a rugged package

The CASIO G'zOne Commando® 4G LTE smartphone pairs with the G-SHOCK watch (Model GB6900AA-1) to enhance your life and outdoor activities. The two devices work in tandem, with a BLE link with Bluetooth® low energy technology (v4.0) which allows for instant updates and notifications. For instance, when paired with your Commando 4G LTE, the G-SHOCK can receive notifications for calls, message, and emails. Tired of forgetting where your phone is? Use the Find Me feature to find your missing phone when in close proximity, or get a notification when you walk too far away from your phone!
