

VIDEO: Michelle Grattan on the government abandoning the Medicare levy

Written by Michelle Grattan, Professorial Fellow, University of Canberra

Michelle Grattan speaks with University of Canberra Deputy Vice-Chancellor Professor Nicholas Klomp about the week in Australian politics. They discuss the government's scrapping of the medicare levy increase, the Coalition's plans to make the election all about tax, whether the government should have conceded upfront about not holding a banking royal commission earlier, and the Chief of Army's ban on death symbols

Michelle Grattan owns bank shares.
