

Were you paying attention on budget night? Test yourself with this quiz

Written by Sunanda Creagh, Head of Digital Storytelling

Are you an #auspol addict? Did you watch the budget speech for fun? Test yourself with our quiz, and catch all our analysis and coverage over here.

How well do you know budget 2019?

Treasurer Josh Frydenberg has reached back in time to give us an extra tax cut on income already earned during the financial year that's about to finish. Most people can expect a tax offset – a bonus – of how much as part of their tax return?

Frydenberg told parliament: "The budget is back in the black and Australia is back on track" for the first time in how many years?

The estimated surplus for 2019-20 will be...

This budget predicts wage growth to do what over the next four years?

What did the budget say about the ATO Tax Avoidance Taskforce?

Frydenberg's headline announcement was the promise to increase the ten-year federal infrastructure spend from the A$75 billion announced last year to a target of $100 billion. Which of these has the government announced entirely new funding for?

According to this budget, Australia's net debt as a share of the economy is expected to peak in 2018-19 at what percentage of GDP?

The budget has allocated $453 million over how many years to extend the provision of 15 hours of preschool?

$528 million dollars has also been announced for a royal commission into what?

This budget allocates $9.2 million to stop the spread of what?

Quiz Maker - powered by Riddle

Read more: Don't be fooled, billions for schools in budget 2019 aren't new. And what happened to the national evidence institute?

Were you paying attention on budget night? Test yourself with this quiz

Written by Sunanda Creagh, Head of Digital Storytelling

Authors: Sunanda Creagh, Head of Digital Storytelling

Read more <http://theconversation.com/were-you-paying-attention-on-budget-night-test-yourself-with-this-quiz-114777>