

VIDEO: Michelle Grattan on Labor's shadow cabinet - and the media raids

Written by Michelle Grattan, Professorial Fellow, University of Canberra

University of Canberra Deputy Vice-Chancellor Geoff Crisp speaks with Michelle Grattan about the week in politics. They discuss Labor's shadow cabinet, including Shorten's new role in the area of the NDIS where he will be going up against Stewart Robert. They also talk about the Reserve Bank's decision to cut interest rates to 1.25% and the two raids this week on journalists conducted by the Australian Federal Police.

Michelle Grattan does not work for, consult, own shares in or receive funding from any company or organisation that would benefit from this article, and has disclosed no relevant affiliations beyond their academic appointment.
