

Klemchuk Kubasta LLP Employee Receives Entrepreneurs for North Texas Honor

Written by Australian Business

DALLAS, TX, September 20, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Jennifer Bergman, Director of Marketing and Business Development at Klemchuk Kubasta LLP (KK LLP), a leading intellectual property (IP) law firm, has been honored by Entrepreneurs for North Texas (EFNT) as Practitioner of the Year.

Entrepreneurs for North Texas is a program of Communities Foundation of Texas and facilitates community involvement and philanthropy for small and mid-sized companies who want to make a beneficial impact on their communities. Practitioners are the internal point of contact within a Member Company who is responsible for helping the company be a good corporate citizen by:

- o Liaising with the senior management to identify EFNT events in which to participate
- o Disseminating EFNT information to co-workers
- o Inspiring and mobilizing the employees to attend EFNT programs
- o Encouraging adoption of business practices that enhance community impact
- o Attending EFNT Practitioner Roundtables and Other Meetings

Besides being an active liaison for KK LLP and EFNT, Jennifer has served on Steering Committees for EFNT events including Purpose Beyond Profit: Good Corporate Citizenship Conference and Freedom Day 2013. She has also built partnerships for KK LLP with Dallas CASA and the Make-A-Wish Foundation of North Texas.

Jennifer has also held several leadership positions with BvB Dallas, a powder-puff football game hosted to raise funds and awareness for Alzheimer's disease research, and is currently serving as a member of the Board of Directors.

"We are exceptionally lucky to have Jennifer with the firm," said Kelly Kubasta, co-founder and senior partner of KK LLP. "Her hard work and dedication make such an impact on not only the community, but also on the firm's culture and our community involvement."

"Recognizing someone that volunteers so much time working on behalf of others is extremely rewarding," said Pam Gerber, Executive Director of EFNT. "EFNT always strives to create opportunities for businesses to make an impact on their communities. Jennifer is an outstanding example of what it takes to be the Practitioner of the Year, and we congratulate her on a job well done."
