YORK, ME, September 21, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Sue Horowitz is a singer-songwriter of contemporary Jewish music from the rocky coast of Maine. A professional musician since the age of 17, Sue has performed in both secular and spiritual venues. Her warm and engaging style creates a feeling of community wherever she sings. Her musical influences are James Taylor, Joni Mitchell, Pete Seeger, and Carol King.

Sue's voice combines the rich alto tones of Karen Carpenter with the soulfulness of Bonnie Raitt. Sue's Jewish tunes range from lyrical to bluesy, from meditative to joyous.

Her debut CD, Eleven Doors Open , was produced by the multi-talented performer and composer, Josh Nelson. Sue's second CD, In the Water , was recorded in Nashville, and produced by Grammy-nominated Mark Niemieć, and well-known Jewish rocker Dan Nichols. Sue's new CD, The Power and the Blessing , was also produced by the fantastic Nashville team. The new CD is scheduled to launch at the end of September. Consistently earning rave reviews, Sue's warmth shines through in leading worship services, performing in concerts, and working with youth and adults. Her engaging presence and spiritual music captivates worshippers and audiences of all ages.
