

PayIn3's First Social Media Contest "PayIn3 The New Way to Pay Giveaway"

Written by Australian Business

PROVO, UT, September 21, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- PayIn3, e-retailer of premium branded fashion accessories including watches, sunglasses and audio from Michael Kors, Spy Optics, Nixon, Casio G-Shock, Sol Republic, Braven and other designer accessories, is making it easier for customers to purchase fashion accessories by launching a new online store that offers an intriguing interest free financing plan for all purchases.

The PayIn3 platform was designed to help buyers get what they want, when they want it, for as little as possible out of pocket. PayIn3 is unique because of the features designed to simplify the buying experience. Unlike many other "finance" type models, PayIn3 operates on a subscription style basis, pre-authorizing the charge of 3 equal payments. Customers are not charged a premium over the retail values of the items they purchase, nor are they charged interest when utilizing the PayIn3 financing.

PayIn3 is happy to announce its first giveaway, "PayIn3: The New Way to Pay Giveaway", starting September 19 and ending September 30. You can join the contest on PayIn3's Facebook page. Entrants have a higher chance of winning when more of their friends enter the contest. Each friend of an entrant awards them 3 extra entries. The contest will result in more than 25 individual winners of products from: Michael Kors, Sol Republic, Nixon, Casio G-Shock and Neff. The winners will be selected through a drawing from the total number of entries. Therefore the more friends of yours that also enter the higher chance you have of winning.

This is the first PayIn3 contest. The company will be giving away thousands of dollars' worth of prizes, gift certificates, and products between now and Christmas through many different contests.
