DUBAI, UAE, September 22, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Lee Wiggins has certainly made a name for himself in Dubai, United Arab Emirates. Today, he is proud to announce the successful construction of Empire Heights, a set of two beautiful towers that rise gracefully over the Dubai skyline.

Lee Wiggins GPD says, "I designed Empire Heights with corporate users in mind. Empire Heights is comprised of two towers that are 16 stories high. A gorgeous, and practical, three-story high podium supports the towers. The podium also has a variety of uses and spaces for retail outlets, restaurants, cafes, and other eateries. There is also a place for quiet reflection in the beautifully landscaped promenade."

Lee Wiggins wanted to make sure that Empire Heights had everything that would provide the working man and woman an excellent work-life balance. Lee Wiggins was able to construct Empire Heights through the investment firm GPD Investments. Lee Wiggins also created this firm. The investment firm focuses on investing in and developing commercial and real estate properties. Through GPD Investments, Lee Wiggins has worked with a variety of impressive and prestigious companies from all around the world. Lee Wiggins has been invaluable to the work efforts of GPD Investments, as he has worked tirelessly to ensure that the properties he develops are of the highest quality and workmanship.

Empire Heights is a complex built with the highest standards and state of the art design. Lee Wiggins wanted a building that looked and felt modern and would give each tenant a feeling of prestige and confidence. Lee Wiggins GPD designed each office to work with whatever the corporate user had in mind. The office spaces are easy to modify with little cost to the corporate user. Lee Wiggins wanted the floor plan to be convenient, practical, and efficient. There are six office units on each floor that can be combined easily, depending on the needs of the corporate user. Lee Wiggins also wanted Empire Heights to have an ease of access. The towers are located by the Dubai Mall, and features direct links to major roads in Dubai. Lee Wiggins is proud of the work that he and GPD Investments have accomplished.
