

Bilingual Kits for Children Delivered to Your Door

Written by Business News

Kids' Candor a US provider of bilingual tools for early childhood development, announced it is opening its website for business to the general public on September 15.