

Written by Business News

---

The Classical Kids LIVE! concert series is dedicated to fostering an appreciation for classical music and music history, through the pairing of professional artists, actors and family-focused programming with local symphony orchestras.