

ATLANTA, GA, September 10, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The workers' compensation and personal injury attorneys of Cumming & Middlebrooks are conveniently located in Buckhead. That means their clients do not have to fight the traffic of downtown Atlanta.

Workers Compensation Cases

The Atlanta workers' compensation attorneys at Cummings & Middlebrooks help workers who have been injured on the job by insuring their claims are properly and timely filed. Insurance companies can use a mistake in the reporting or filing of a workers' comp claim to deny employees the money they need to pay bills, support their families and obtain the medical care and rehabilitation needed to get better. Even if an employer does not have workers' compensation insurance or claims that an injury does not qualify for workers' compensation benefits, Cummings & Middlebrooks may still be able to help.

Under Georgia law, attorneys cannot take a fee for representing a client in a workers' compensation matter unless they recover for the client. That means clients do not pay any money when they hire the Atlanta workers comp attorneys at Cummings & Middlebrooks, and they can always get a free consultation.

Personal Injury Cases

Cummings & Middlebrooks handles personal injury cases other than those sustained at the workplace. These Atlanta, Ga. worker's compensation lawyers help clients recover from a wide range of personal injuries caused by the negligence of others including motor vehicle accidents, medical malpractice and dangerous or defective products. Their Atlanta wrongful death attorneys also insure that families who have lost a loved one due to a workplace injury or the negligence of another obtain appropriate damages.

The Advantages of Buckhead

Cummings & Middlebrooks' offices in Buckhead are a convenient drive from anywhere in the metro-Atlanta area. The firm handles cases for metro Atlanta as well as central and north Georgia. For people coming in from out of town, Buckhead offers numerous hotels and restaurants just steps away from their offices.
