Clean Start at Dawn's Commercial

The Most Memorable days usually end with the dirtiest clothes!

LAKE WORTH, FL, September 14, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Clean Start at Dawn's, located at 7034 Charleston Shores Blvd, inside the Lake Charleston Center offers dry cleaning, wash-fold and pressing services to residents and commercial clients in Palm Beach County. The store offers timely service, including free pick-up and drop-off delivery, and provides quality care for clothing, linens and uniforms. Clean Start at Dawn's has the expertise and equipment to handle oversized items such as comforters and drapes. You can rely on their delicate touch too, with precious garments such as wedding dresses.

Dawn first started her business in 2012 by opening a Laundromat in West Palm Beach. She sold that business so she could be closer to home in Lake Worth and that is where she found her new location. As she did in her last place Dawn continued a tradition of quality service at reasonable prices. Dawn says, "Client satisfaction is the measure of our success. " Using environmentally friendly and safe cleaning methods, Clean Start at Dawn's provides a variety of services for a diverse base of individuals and service industry customers. Dawn and her family are real locals. In addition to running their businesses, they are involved in community activities and giving back to the less fortunate.

Clean Start at Dawn's contributes to many different community organizations. Dawn says she strives to make Clean Start at Dawn's grow one satisfied client at a time. Operating each day with a commitment to outstanding customer service and hard work is her strategy for success. One day at a time, he lives the dream of a real entrepreneur.

Dawn says her proudest moments as a business owner "are each time a client smiles and says 'That looks great, thank you'."

Remember to Start Everyday with a Clean Start at Dawn's.

Clean Start at Dawn's is a family owned and operated business right here in Palm Beach County FL. Our owner was raised in Miami, FL and is still proud to be a resident of the local community. Since the age of 5 years old, our owner dreamed of owning her own business and treating her customers with unmatched personal attention. In a day and age where personal attention has been tossed aside by most companies, this team prides themselves on being different.

Clean Start at Dawn's provides Dry Cleaning and Laundry services. For those of you who value your time and dread the idea of "laundry day" and ironing then let the friendly staff at Clean Start at Dawn's take care of it for you. They are the ultimate drop off store. Their personal attention to detail is what sets them apart from their competition. And they will match any competitors' price. If you need it within the day or next day, the owner herself will make sure it happens. That is what customer service is all about.
