

ATLANTA, GA, September 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Classroom Essentials Online is pleased to announce that it has added an online customer service chat function to its school furniture website. With this exciting new feature, Classroom Essentials Online has opened a new communication avenue for its customers.

Many customers find that the immediate response of live chat helps them to learn more information about individual products and to learn about new products that might fit their needs. Classroom Essentials Online has discovered that customers appreciate the ease of being able to discover new products through links provided by the representatives, and many appreciate being able to contact the restaurant furniture supplier without needing to call.

During the hours when the Classroom Essentials Online customer service team is unavailable, the live chat portal provides a quick and easy way for customers to reach out to the folding tables company. All messages received during off hours are given responses once business resumes.

"We want to encourage our existing and potential customers to feel comfortable contacting us with any questions they may have about our products or our services," says Matthew Washabaugh, President of Classroom Essentials Online. "By adding a live chat function to our website, we've created another way for our customers to easily reach our customer service representatives."

Classroom Essentials Online is a family-owned and operated furniture supplier that specializes in church chairs, restaurant furniture, banquet tables, school furniture and more. The company is committed to providing its customers with the best available furniture pieces and best possible customer service in the industry.

About Classroom Essentials Online: Classroom Essentials Online was founded on the family's experience owning Advantage Church and School Furniture, which opened in 1985.
