

ATLANTA, GA, September 24, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Facilitation training powerhouse Leadership Strategies conducted a four-day Effective Facilitator training class in the Pacific Northwest city of Seattle from September 16-19, 2013. This presented an opportunity to get the best facilitative leadership training from this facilitation training expert.

An effective facilitator understands the process of facilitation and has a solid grasp of group dynamics. Using this knowledge as well as understanding the specific needs and distinct characteristics of the participants, the facilitator guides the group to the desired results. A skilled facilitator helps the participants not only create and understand the outcome, but more importantly, accept it. Imagine what such a trained facilitator can do for your company.

"Our Effective Facilitator class is truly an awesome opportunity to learn the latest and best practices in facilitation skills training today," says Kris Casariego, Director of Marketing of Leadership Strategies. "You learn to guide participants toward a consensus, as well as how to develop realistic plans and solutions that work for them. We give you the tools to succeed as a master facilitator, so you can lead people to action, engage groups and generate ownership for the outcome."

A successful facilitator training company for more than 20 years, Leadership Strategies is the trusted expert in facilitative leadership training today. They offer a complete and comprehensive leadership training program for companies of all sizes all over the country and across several industries and markets. Leadership Strategies is radically changing the way corporate America conducts its business - one productive meeting at a time.
