

Los Angeles Eye Doctor, Dr. Rabbani, Provides Alternative Eye Care Services

Written by Australian Business

LOS ANGELES, CA, October 11, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Los Angeles eye doctor , Dr. R. Anthony Rabbani, offers alternative eye care services. Many people today are looking for more natural approaches that address the root causes of eye conditions and vision problems. Holistic or alternative eye care can include a variety of services and treatments. Dr. Rabbani coordinates the care of his patients with skilled alternative practitioners who can help improve eye health and general well-being.

Eye Candy Optometry and Eyewear offers other services as well. The office, which is conveniently located in Toluca Lake, welcomes new patients from across the Los Angeles region. With the latest technology, treatment protocols and alternative treatments, they offer consistent quality and a completely customized suite of services. Dr. Rabbani is a skilled expert in eye exam in Los Angeles who can identify and correct vision problems, manage eye diseases and care for those who are legally blind.

Eye exams can help people maintain their visual health. Dr. Rabbani, skilled Los Angeles optometrist, performs routine eye exams, emergency eye care, contact lens exams, LASIK and refractive surgery as well as holistic eye care that can include massage, acupuncture, herbal or Reiki services. Eye Candy Optometry and Eyewear provides a relaxing meditation room to help patients re-center before or after treatment. They also feature an extensive selection of glasses frames and designs. Patients who need vision correction can choose from contact lenses or no-line bifocals and scratch-resistant surfaces. They can also choose from a wide range of frame styles that include handmade and sustainable designs.

About Dr. Rabbani, Optometrist Los Angeles

After graduating, Dr. Rabbani, premier Los Angeles optometrist, attended UCLA before earning his doctorate from the New England College of Optometry in Boston. He completed post-graduate work with Omni Eye Services, which offers highly specialized services for patients who have cataracts, glaucoma or macular degeneration. He has also worked with Boston's Veterans Administration Hospital and a community health center. He has a passion for volunteer work and has been involved in the Volunteer Optometric Students for Humanities with which he travelled to the Yucatan to help underprivileged patients and the Gift of Sight program that gave him the opportunity to serve underprivileged children, women and men in the Los Angeles area. Dr. Rabbani is fluent in English, Spanish, and Farsi.

Press Release by <http://www.avitalweb.com/> Kevin Neman(818) 205-9300