

CARROLLTON, TX, October 19, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- IAG LLC Carrollton, one of the countries premiere merger and acquisition companies, announced the sale of Rainbow Press, Inc. to Safeguard distributor MNM Associates, Inc. earlier this year. The sale was another successful deal for IAG LLC Carrollton, a company that has produced thousands of happy clients during its years in business. IAG LLC Carrollton once again used its deep database and industry familiarity to facilitate the deal.

Rainbow Press, Inc. is a privately owned commercial printing company that specializes in promotional products. They boast prompt turnaround and first class service, something IAG LLC Carrollton found very appealing when trying to find a suitor interested in purchasing the company. Upon doing their due diligence on Rainbow Press, IAG LLC Carrollton found that they also had a focus on community involvement, exceeding expectations with high quality, and creating long-lasting client relationships. IAG LLC Carrollton always looks to work with clients that have standards and goals similar to their own.

"We at IAG LLC Carrollton have a major focus on supporting the community, so when we find a client that believes in the same ideal, we make it a priority to find a match for them," said President Jason Hullender. "We have a large client base, and deal very professionally with all of them, but we always like to be able to connect with our clients on a personal basis," he continued.

IAG LLC Carrollton , officially known as the International Acquisitions Group, is an intermediary advisement firm that aims at facilitating business mergers and acquisitions. They have a large portfolio of available businesses that they seek to promptly sell, often times to one of the clients in their well-developed database.

IAG LLC Carrollton boasts some 60 plus business analysts, each with years of experience in some area of business. Each analyst brings different skillsets to the company. Some of IAG LLC Carrollton's employees come from finance backgrounds, others marketing, and even others have a history in real estate or accounting. The idea is that each analyst can complement the company in some unique fashion.

The sale of Rainbow Press, Inc. was made to MNM Associates, Inc. The sale marks an opportunity for the company to expand its market in the state of Texas. Rainbow Press, Inc. operates out of Midland, Texas.

IAG LLC Carrollton Reveals Sale of Rainbow Press, Inc. to MNM Associates, Inc.

Written by Australian Business

MNM Associates, Inc. is a distributorship of Safeguard, a company focused on business development. They strive to help businesses become more successful by providing them with the services they need to thrive in their particular industry. These services range from promotional materials to marketing solutions. IAG LLC Carrollton found this potential acquisition opportunity as a chance for Safeguard to expand their brand to a new market.

Geographically, this deal will give the Dallas, Texas based Safeguard a chance to move further west to Midland, Texas. One of the business analysts at IAG LLC Carrollton said, "Every now and then you find one of those deals that just fit perfectly. This was one of those; both sides wanted it to work from the very beginning."

About: IAG LLC Carrollton is a premiere merger and acquisitions company located in Texas.