company, seeks to build a community of individuals and companies that share this vision and belief. Towards this end, it offers a strategic partnership program with select companies and individuals.

Interested parties can be Licensing, Collaborative, or Referral partners. Organizations and individuals who are Licensing Partners are certified and licensed to teach the training materials of Leadership Strategies. Collaborative partners are companies whose products and services complement as well as add value to those offered by Leadership Strategies. Lastly, individuals who refer new customers to Leadership Strategies are Referral partners.

Offering successful facilitation training for over 20 years, Leadership Strategies is a recognized leader in the industry. In that time, they have guided over 17,000 people towards a significant and dramatic improvement of their facilitation skills.

"People lie at the core of our business and our mission," says Kris Casariego, Director of Marketing of Leadership Strategies. "Our multi-awarded facilitators are highly trained and skilled, with some of them achieving Certified Master Facilitator designation. Our clients come from all levels of their organization and across several industries. When they are brought together in a facilitation training session, a transformation occurs; one that has far-reaching, lasting and career- and life-changing implications. The truth is simply this: we cannot change the way we do business if we do not change the people who do business."

Leadership Strategies offers corporate, seminar, and meeting facilitation training for business and thought leaders across different fields and specializations. With facilitative leadership training from Leadership Strategies, you can turn useless, time-consuming meetings into productive sessions that contribute to your company's success and competence.
