

ATLANTA, GA, November 06, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- PrimeRevenue Inc., a leading global supply chain finance platform for optimizing cash flow, is pleased to share that their CEO PJ Bain was interviewed on Atlanta Tech Edge. Atlanta Tech Edge is a weekly television show that highlights the latest in cutting-edge technology around the city.

Investment strategist, Wes Moss, leads the show, introducing top local innovators, investors and visionaries. Atlanta Tech Edge decided to feature Bain because of his involvement in the technology community around Atlanta. He is also a leader with a proven track record of success in helping organizations grow and increase efficiency in many areas.

He attributes his success to his upbringing. "I was blessed with parents that instilled a hard-working and entrepreneurial spirit at a very young age," noted Bain.

Paving the Way PrimeRevenue is a noted leader in supply chain finance with their cloud-based applications that enable clients to lengthen payment terms to their suppliers and reduce collection time from their customers.

"Since its incorporation in 2003, PrimeRevenue has revolutionized financial supply chains by allowing our clients to increase payment terms to their suppliers while reducing collection time for the suppliers. Our global technology platform, OpenSCiTM, allows more than 13,000 clients around the world to generate cash flow on their terms. For instance, today we process over $60 billion in payments to our clients. As a comparison, that figure equals around 15 percent of Georgia GDP," Bain noted.
