

ATLANTA, GA, November 07, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- A corporate retreat is an excellent way for companies and organizations to gather vital business and policy decision makers around a table, so to speak, to tackle important issues. FindAFacilitator is a successful contract facilitator company with more than 500 meeting experts in its database. This is what they have to say about conducting corporate retreats.

A successful corporate retreat begins with careful preparation. Make sure the participants know what issues will be tackled during the retreat and that they come ready to participate fully in the process. A focused agenda, as well as the presence of key stakeholders, is also crucial. Retreat resolutions have to be clearly actionable, and the people tasked with its implementation need to be clear on their duties and responsibilities.

An experienced and highly-trained professional facilitator can help keep a corporate retreat focused and its participants fully engaged and invested in the process, which can contribute significantly to its success.

Leadership Strategies owns and operates FindAFacilitator. Kris Casariego, Director of Marketing for Leadership Strategies, was asked to talk about the company. This is what she said: "We have experienced and highly knowledgeable facilitators who can help our clients with their strategic planning session, an executive retreat, or even just have a productive business meeting. We focus on what our client needs and we help them achieve their goals."

FindAFacilitator has certified facilitators all over the world, ready to help companies conduct their next successful company meeting.
