

DENVER, CO, November 12, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The International Association for Continuing Education and Training (IACET) has awarded reaccreditation status to BMGI, a Denver-based consulting firm. IACET Authorized Providers are the only organizations approved to offer IACET Continuing Education Units (CEUs). The accreditation period extends for five years, and includes all programs offered or created during that time.

"BMGI is proud of our education programs which train hundreds of business professionals each year in the areas of strategy, innovation, operational excellence and change management," said David Silverstein, founder and CEO of BMGI. "Our renewed partnership with IACET is a demonstration of our commitment to lifelong learning and high standards for all of our programs."

"We are pleased to continue our relationship with BMGI as an Authorized Provider," stated Kristopher J. Newbauer, president of IACET and director of Learning & Organization Development at Rotary International in Evanston, Ill. "BMGI joins nearly 650 organizations around the globe that have had their programs vetted by third-party experts in continuing education to ensure the highest possible standards are met."

In order to achieve Authorized Provider accreditation, BMGI completed a rigorous application process, including a review by an IACET site visitor, and successfully demonstrated adherence to the ANSI/IACET 1-2013 Standard addressing the design, development, administration, and evaluation of its programs. BMGI has pledged its continued compliance with the standard, and is recognized as offering the highest quality continuing education and training programs.
