

BOSTON, MA, November 25, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Rubicon Holdings Inc. (RHI), a business advisory firm that connects entrepreneurs and investors, reported a two-year growth pattern. The company growth and new client acquisition showcases that any day is a good day to start a business.

With year-over-year growth for more than two years, RHI helps fast-growing businesses more profitable or take a business idea and make it real. The rapid growth is strengthened by RHI's reputation in the market and unique business prerequisites. What's more, RHI is not about the volume of clients they work with, but about working with the best ideas. Their business model either connects entrepreneurs and investors or they will invest, operate and grow a new business with the team, as appropriate.

"Rubicon Holding's mission is to connect entrepreneurs and investors. We have the networking power to succeed with a good business idea or support the expansion of a fast-growing business," said Sean Reilly, CEO, Rubicon Holdings Inc. "We are committed to our clients 24-7 and are expanding, hiring new talent, and further developing technology to increase the value we bring to clients."
