

PARSIPPAY, NJ, December 28, 2013 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Maverick Funding Corp, today announced that Josh Shein, Reverse Mortgage Network Vice President, has been named to Mortgage Professional America's Hot 100 list. (see article: <http://www.mpamag.com/special-reports/mpa-hot-100-2013-16443.aspx>) This list, included in the December issue of the publication, showcases the mortgage industry's 2013 "movers and shakers".

"Josh is very deserving of this recognition and we are honored to have Maverick represented among the top influencers in our industry. Since joining Maverick in early 2012, Josh has spearheaded the growth of our Reverse Mortgage Network Division, increasing our reverse volume by 158%, resulting in consistent rankings as one of the top ten retail reverse mortgage lenders nationwide," said Ralph Vitiello, CEO.

Mortgage Professional America is a national magazine dedicated to the Mortgage and Finance Industry. The magazine features the latest news, opinions and analysis, and is one of the most trusted sources in the industry. This inaugural list features the top 100 people across the mortgage spectrum, from CEO's and Presidents, to other influential players.

Maverick Funding Corp. is a licensed mortgage lender that provides personal and efficient lending services to a wide variety of borrowers looking to finance primary, secondary or investment property residences. It has obtained FHA, Fannie Mae, and Ginnie Mae approval, we operates in 31 states has increased its staff from 20 in 2007 to more than 210 employee's to-date.