

Adjustrite Inc Goes the Extra Mile for its Clients

Written by Australian Business

BRONX, NY, January 01, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- In today's fast-paced business climate, few companies consider taking the time to provide additional services for their clients. Adjustrite Inc does not agree with this sentiment, and believes that businesses should always go the extra mile for its customers. Adjustrite Inc is a model example of how a business can take extra steps to ensure customer satisfaction. In its dealings with customers, the company always strives to fulfill every need and beyond.

The public adjuster employees at Adjustrite Inc provide a variety of insurance claims related services to clients. When these needs are met, the public adjuster team makes sure to follow up with any additional queries from clients. What makes this team special is its dedication to satisfying customers across a number of areas. A spokesperson for the team explains, "Our public adjusters want to attend to every aspect of a client's claim, no matter how seemingly insignificant it might be." This drive to fulfill all client needs makes Adjustrite Inc a truly impressive business.

In a specific example, Adjustrite Inc recommends other companies to clients for additional assistance. One of the company's partners, Nationwide Contracting, is frequently recommended to clients for rebuilding damaged property. Adjustrite Inc recommends this service pro bono; it is not required in the insurance claims work that the company specializes in. Innumerable clients have been grateful for this recommendation, as they often have trouble with choosing a construction company to repair the damage done to their properties. Like Adjustrite Inc, Nationwide Contracting highly values customer satisfaction and goes to great lengths to make sure that all client needs are effectively addressed.

To promote continued positive experiences for clients, Adjustrite Inc asks for feedback from former customers. If clients make constructive suggestions about how to exceed expectations, then you can bet that Adjustrite Inc incorporates this feedback into future dealings with clients. For the team at Adjustrite Inc, receiving personalized feedback is also important. A spokesperson commented, "Getting specific reviews of my performance has been very helpful for improving the quality of my work. We're always open to constructive criticism at Adjustrite Inc, as we want to learn how we can better tailor our services to our clients."

Despite its long history of going the extra mile for clients, Adjustrite Inc did not always adhere to this value. Soon after the company's founding, the management team realized that to improve their work with clients, they would need to offer additional help. This has given Adjustrite Inc a sense of prestige in the insurance adjustment industry, that is unmatched by other companies. Since reworking the company model to include additional services, the team at Adjustrite Inc has enjoyed great success with customer relations and the quality of work produced from all levels of employees. Adjustrite Inc plans to continue with this particular model, as it has resulted in positive gains so far. Putting in extra efforts for clients has enabled
