

WASHINGTON, DC, January 15, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Washington, DC-based bank advisory firm, HarveyFoster Impact Capital Group, LLC (HarveyFoster), announced in January that former Director of Community Investment for E*TRADE Financial, Mr. Kelvin James, will join the firm as Director of Community Engagement and Compliance Strategy. Mr. James will be responsible for economic development strategy and compliance optimization based on the regulatory requirements of the firm's clients.

As Director of Community Investment at E*TRADE Financial, Mr. James created strategy and directed activities towards bank compliance and risk management with Community Reinvestment, Home Mortgage Disclosure, Community Support and Fair Lending regulatory requirements. Mr. James led examinations in his areas of responsibility with federal regulators, government agencies and internal auditors, each meeting or exceeding compliance standards. Mr. James also facilitated Community Reinvestment Act (CRA)-qualified activities receiving favorable regulator consideration.

With over 20 years of experience in compliance strategy for the financial services sector, Mr. James looks forward to continuing this work with HarveyFoster. "It's an honor to join HarveyFoster Impact Capital Group and work with dedicated professionals committed to serving the industry and the community with solutions to meet the opportunities ahead of us," he stated.

The firm's Co-Founders and Managing Partners, Ana Harvey and James Perez Foster, believe that Mr. James will be an excellent addition to the HarveyFoster team. "We are very fortunate to have someone of Mr. James' caliber and expertise to guide our clients with their high-level strategic and compliance needs and assist us in achieving our firm's long-term vision," said Harvey.

"Within a fast-changing financial regulatory environment, the addition of Mr. James further deepens HarveyFoster's ability to provide the most robust, timely and compliant community development and investment strategies for our global banking clients," said Perez Foster.

About HarveyFoster

HarveyFoster is a bank advisory group comprised of national experts in the areas of financial compliance, SBA optimization and Community Reinvestment Act (CRA) strategy. The firm works with financial clients to enhance bottom-line revenue opportunities by identifying rapid-growth markets and customizing impact- oriented programs and capital deployment strategies.

HarveyFoster is a Washington D.C. based minority/woman-owned management consulting firm.

www.harveyfostergroup.com For more information, please contact: Ms. Kavita Rodgers at 202.280.6650 ext. 103 krodgers@harveyfostergroup.com .