

BOSTON, MA, March 06, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Northeast Suites is honored to receive a 2014 Tower of Excellence Award from the Corporate Housing Providers Association (CHPA) - the Company of the Year Award.

The Tower of Excellence and Company of the Year Awards recognizes outstanding member companies and individuals who demonstrate commitment, excellence and significant contributions to their company, CHPA and the industry.

"It is an honor and a privilege to be recognized by the Corporate Housing Providers Association as its Company of the Year," said CEO & Founder Patrick Flynn. "Winning this award is a testament to the hard work and dedication of the entire Northeast Suites team, and we will continue to build upon our reputation as the premier corporate housing provider in the northeast."

Judging criteria for Company Member of the Year includes contributing locally, nationally and internationally to the corporate housing industry; creating unique solutions or programs to enhance the industry; achieving sound financial results as they pertain to growth through sales and other initiatives; exceeding guests' expectations measured by survey results or testimonials from guests or clients using member's services; developing strong relationships with other corporate housing providers; and developing collaborative relationships with supplier partners.

CHPA is the only trade association dedicated to the corporate housing industry providing networking, educational and informational opportunities to corporate housing providers globally. The association's Certified Corporate Housing Professional (CCHP) certification exemplifies competence and professionalism in the corporate housing industry. Companies staffed by CHPA Certified Professionals ensure clients receive professional and courteous service from a trained, highly knowledgeable and skilled professional.
