

Judy McDougall Celebrates 15 Years at the Helm of her Business

Written by Australian Business

Ontario, Canada, March 31, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Welcomehome Relocations Owner and President Judy McDougall has been recognized for showing dedication, leadership and excellence in corporate relocations.

Serving more than 40 destinations throughout Canada, Welcomehome Relocations is fully equipped to help businesses successfully transition from one location to the next while assisting employees and their families as well. Working to make the relocation process as stress- and pressure-free as possible, the dedicated staff provides information on real estate rentals and buying prospects, advises on lifestyle adjustment and budgeting, and even provides information on nearby school districts for those employees with children. In addition to overseeing operations and maintaining existing relationships, Ms. McDougall sources new business opportunities while ensuring that customer service is of the highest quality.

Inspired by a friend who needed help relocating and acclimating to her new surroundings, Ms. McDougall went into business for herself with the goal of creating smooth transitions for her clients and has since been able to evolve with changes in the field through her adaptability. As each company has a unique background, makeup and set of operations, she is able to tailor services to meet their individual needs in a cost-effective and time-saving manner.

Ms. McDougall, who received a Bachelor of Arts in administrative studies from Western University, is a member of the Human Resources Professionals Association, the Society for Human Resource Management and Worldwide ERC, a relocation services industry group. Her company is a two-time nominee for the Large Business of the Year award and has received numerous accolades from satisfied clients.
