

HOUSTON, TX, April 30, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Looking to buy a business in Houston, sell a business Houston, or simply want to know how much your competition is worth? The business acquisitions experts at Del Lingco International are proud to announce the launch of a newly designed website that highlights their vast experience in handling sales, mergers, acquisitions, and business appraisals Houston businesses.

Del Lingco International was founded in 1958, and their team of business brokers in Houston is currently led by native Houstonian, Dominick Caravella, III. According to the company's website, it is their goal to help you successfully complete a business transfer. That is why the process always begins with an extensive meeting between you and a Del Lingco associate, designed to help them get to know you and your business. If you are looking to acquire another business, a Del Lingco International broker will offer a list of businesses available for purchase that fit your specified criteria, and will help arrange a face-to-face meeting with the seller. For those interested in selling their business, they will get your company maximum exposure to qualified buyers and conduct personal interviews with all prospective buyers before revealing any details about your business to them.

Besides helping broker business deals in Houston, the associates at Del Lingco International also provide business certified appraisals. They are certified with the International Society of Business Analysts, the NEBB Institute, and the Institute of Business Appraisers. Brokers at Del Lingco International are also certified machinery and equipment appraisers.

Visitors to the company's website will find the site easy to read and navigate. In the top right hand corner of each page on the website, one will find the company's telephone number. Throughout the website, there is detailed information about the steps and documents involved in buying and selling a business, advantages to buying a business, and how a business appraisal is conducted. On the About Us page, the company's professional certifications are listed, and there is even a Videos page honoring business legends throughout American history.

To learn more about Del Lingco International and why you should use them to broker your next business deal, call 713-783-5800 or send an email to dominick@dellingco.com.
