

ATLANTA, GA, May 05, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- After training several thousand facilitators in person, Leadership Strategies has made it easy for seminar facilitators to learn, explore and enjoy its facilitation training techniques from the comfort of home or the office. Each of Leadership Strategies' products can be purchased either through the company's website or by placing an order via telephone.

Leadership Strategies is pleased with the user-friendly shopping experience that both methods of purchase provide to strategic planning facilitators around the world. All of the materials you would need for courses, including books, manuals, articles and facilitator guides, are available for rapid shipping and subscriptions and course registration can easily be paid for.

Having these facilitation training resources available for easy purchase helps busy facilitators across the globe to stay up-to-date on their facilitation training without necessarily needing to be in close proximity to a trainer or public class. This is especially useful for facilitative consultants, whose location and schedule are often determined by clients.

The materials available through the Leadership Strategies shop are also great resources to purchase as a reference after completing one or more of its training courses. These courses include materials initially, but many facilitators find it helpful to have copies of the material both in their offices and at home for quick and easy referencing.

"We encourage the facilitators we train to remember that all of our materials are available for purchase online at any time," says Kris Casariego, Director of Marketing of Leadership Strategies. "It's always helpful to have a physical copy of your workbooks and course manual to look back over as you grow as a facilitator."
