

SAN DIEGO, CA, June 19, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Having previously received the San Diego Business Award three times consecutively, Imani Lee, Inc. and its subsidiary Imani Lee Language Services has been granted the 2014 Southern California Award in the Language, Social Media, Translation, Certification & Interpreting Services category. In recognition of this fourth award, Imani Lee, Inc. has also joined the Southern California Business Hall of Fame.

Imani Lee, Inc. and its subsidiary companies are primarily focused on providing international services to governments, corporations, small businesses, and other non-governmental organizations such as SCOLA, a non-profit dedicated to foreign language training. The company's services include: translation, interpretation, curriculum development, international social media management, and more.

"Having been in business and serving global customer for over a decade, becoming a member of the Hall of Fame is an incredible accomplishment that speaks to our commitment to customer service and high quality deliverables," said Lee E. Martin, the Chief Executive Officer of Imani Lee. "The entire Imani Lee team is very proud of this award, and we plan to continue to make a name for ourselves in our home town of San Diego, throughout Southern California, and around the world."
