

Ferguson Case Orr Paterson Appellate Attorney to Speak at National Seminar

Written by Australian Business

VENTURA, CA, July 03, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Wendy Lascher, an appellate lawyer with Ferguson Case Orr Paterson LLP, will participate in the panel discussion "Building an Appellate Practice" at a national appellate advocacy seminar presented by the Defense Research Institute in Chicago held July 17-18. The DRI is widely recognized as the leading organization of lawyers involved in the defense of civil litigation.

"Appeals courts review individual lower court decisions and interpret and develop the law for application in future cases," said Lascher. "That means my colleagues and I are out front in knowing what direction the law is heading. We work with trial lawyers, consult with clients, and present arguments to trial courts, intermediate appellate courts and the Supreme Court."

Lascher, who is an AV-rated lawyer and State Bar-certified specialist in appellate law, was selected by Super Lawyers as one of the top 50 women lawyers in Southern California. Lascher received her law degree from the University of Michigan Law School and was admitted to the State Bar of California in 1973.

Joining her on the panel are Linda T. Coberly of Winston & Strawn LLP, Chicago, Ill.; and Wallace B. Jefferson of Alexander Dubose Jefferson Townsend LLP, Austin, Texas. Ed R. Haden of Balch & Bingham LLP, Birmingham, Ala., will moderate the panel.
