

Enterprise Goal Management Company, Kapta, Offers a FREE Demo

Written by Australian Business

BOULDER, CO, October 10, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Kapta, an Enterprise Goal Management technology company, continues their mission to bring the agile methodology to the entire business by offering a free, personalized demo to executives who are interested in trying the platform.

Kaptas serves CEOs and other executives by easing the pain associated with communicating company goals, strategic alignment, employee engagement and tracking progress by providing Enterprise Goal Management at their fingertips in real-time.

An added advantage of Kapta's all-in-one agile business software solution is that it can be accessed from any device that has an internet connection, meaning that project information is never further than a few clicks away. This allows business meetings and brainstorming sessions to take place virtually anywhere.

Interested parties who are eager to find out about the solutions that Kapta can offer their businesses or would like to find out more about the company's current free demo offer can do so by visiting this link: <http://www.kapta.com/request-demo> .

Headquartered in Boulder, Colorado, Kapta is an Enterprise Goal Management platform that allows CEOs and other executives to communicate company goals, track employee contributions and see status through a real-time dashboard.
