MONTREAL, QC, November 11, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- FMA Summits has recently released a brand-new corporate video that will offer insights into the way in which its corporate summits are organized. The video will feature testimonials from attendees and partners at FMA's most recent event in Chicago in May 2014.

The testimonials will appear against the stunning backdrop of the Westin Lombard Yorktown Center and will support and enlarge on the networking activities and on-site services offered by FMA Summits while showing how the caliber, scope and expertise of companies attending the summits can lead to the building of effective and mutually satisfying business relationships.

"The video was created to give insight into how our summits are created and to share our clients' feedback as to how FMA Summits works with you and for you," says Founder and President Joe Piazza.

The video features perspectives from companies such as: General Motors, Walgreens, AERCO International, GE Lighting and Kaeser Compressors.
