

ATLANTA, GA, November 12, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- Peachtree Corners Business Association (PCBA), located in metro Atlanta's Peachtree Corners, GA, will host their annual Year End Celebration and Member Appreciation Night. The event will take place at 5:00pm on Thursday, November 13 at Gwinnett Medical Center - Duluth. Attendees can enjoy networking, catered food and drinks, and awards presentations. 2015 officers will be elected, and donations will be presented to Peachtree Elementary and the Robert D. Fowler Family YMCA.

Peachtree Elementary is part of the Gwinnett County School District. It enrolls over 1,700 students from K-5th grade. The Robert D. Fowler Family YMCA is affiliated with YMCA of Metro Atlanta. YMCA supports youth development, healthy living, and social responsibility. In 2014 more than 25% of member dues will go to support local non-profit groups in Peachtree Corners. In addition, the PCBA raised over $4,000 for local charities at their Community Outreach Networking event in October 2014. Organizations receiving donations were selected by the PCBA Community Outreach Committee; nominations and recommendations are accepted.

"We are excited to celebrate the companies, people and events that have helped to contribute to the success of the PCBA and its impact on the Peachtree Corners community," explains Lisa Proctor, Membership Chair. Guests will have ample opportunities to sample delicious food, network with peers, meet VIPs, and participate in the election of new officers for the PCBA," say Proctor.
