

TYSONS CORNER, VA, November 22, 2014 /24-7PressRelease/ -- The Potomac Officers Club hosted its "FY 15 Budget & Procurement" summit Wednesday, with discussions centering on the GovCon effects from next year's sequester, the new Congress and funding uncertainty.

GovCon executives and leaders from government who attended the event sought to gain insight and perspective from the roster of speakers: Chip Fulghum (Department of Homeland Security), Jennifer Walsmith (National Security Agency) and Mike McCord (Defense Department) from the public sector, and Jim McAleese and Arnold Punaro from industry.

A panel discussion on cloud computing and its impact on federal agencies' technology budgets and acquisition platforms was also held at the event, with Cisco's Alan Balutis moderating.
