

Written by Business News

---

The Complaint alleges that Skyline misrepresented its business prospects to lure the Regional Sales Managers to join the company and then breached contracts and violated Minnesota employment law when it failed to compensate them