

The one-day seminar, sponsored by the National Business Institute (NBI), provided attendees with a step-by-step walk through of the quiet title action process and its legal complications.