

Paktor Breaks Guinness World Record

Written by Australian Business

Paktor being presented with a new Guinness World Record™

Each participant had a 3-minute date with 24 other participants, which included numerous local celebrities as well as singers from popular local band V-Music.

Paktor Speed Date Night was witnessed and adjudicated on site by Mr. Mark McKinley from GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS™. He shared, "Today, we broke the record for the largest speed dating event... we did have to disqualify quite a lot of people because they did not fill in the forms correctly. But I'm glad to say that today, Paktor and Sagiko managed to bring 484 (qualified) entrants together to speed date, which is a brand new GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS™ title. You are officially amazing."

The event witnessed a significant social media burst with hundreds of posts and check-ins throughout the night on the Paktor Speed Date Night event fan page on Facebook.

Paktor's Founder and CEO Joseph Phua commented, "The strong online presence of the Paktor Speed Date Night is an example of how Vietnam's youths are highly tech-savvy while socially engaged in the real world: A rare and valued characteristic that presents Vietnam with a bright future."

A Paktor Music Festival

The record-breaking speed dating event was followed by Paktor Music Festival, a rocking party which celebrated the new speed dating world record. Party-goers grooved to great live music performed by V-Music, Cuban band Luna Negra and Maya, as well as dance performances by the MTE Dance Crew. The event was also joined by renown international DJ Timmy Vegas.

Paktor Speed Date Night was presented by Paktor, the most popular Asian mobile dating app and Sagiko, a flagship juice drink brand by Singapore-based F&B giant CKL Holdings Pte Ltd.
