

The Scarlet Re-Opens to Welcome Guests After Extensive Refurbishment

Written by Australian Business

SINGAPORE-- Media OutReach --9 December 2013 -- The Scarlet , Singapore's first luxury boutique hotel and a well-loved icon by guests and locals alike for nearly a decade, re-opens its doors today after undergoing an extensive five-month renovation.

Redefining the lavish, bold and elegant look signature to The Scarlet, the interior rejuvenation enhances the hotel's unique personality and conjures an ambience that will enthrall and indulge the senses once again. Showcasing luxurious touches and bespoke pieces that belie the discerning style of Scarlet, the gracious hostess, the 80-room property looks forward to welcoming guests and patrons to experience its tastefully revamped interior and amenities. Guestrooms and suites in particular have seen substantial updates in their design concepts to better cater for guests who appreciate a personalised and ever memorable hotel experience, beyond just another hotel stay.

The Scarlet's all day bistro and bar, Our Korner, also re-opens to guests and customers today; while its renowned roof-top bar, Breeze, will open by the end of the month.

The distinctive, four-storied heritage building along Erskine Road is nestled in the heart of Singapore's culture-rich Chinatown area. Minutes away from a bevy of traditional establishments, famous hawker joints and surrounded by trendy dining, entertainment and shopping spots, The Scarlet Singapore is conveniently and ideally situated for tourists and staycationers.

Four different types of rooms and five characteristic suites are available, each lending a defining touch to the hotel's eclectic make-up. The room types -- Standard, Deluxe, Executive and Premium, and particularly the suites -- Passion, Swank, Opulent, Lavish and Splendour -- each exude its own distinct charm, fervour and appeal. As The Scarlet beckons guests with this bold interior makeover, it looks set to give new meaning to a truly luxurious boutique hotel experience all over again.
