

SINGAPORE -- Media OutReach -- 30 May 2014 -- It is time to re-think and redefine digital printing with Konica Minolta Business Solutions Asia's launch of bizhub PRESS C1070 and C1060.

The new series is a powerful and flexible colour digital printing system that complements offset business perfectly. Designed to meet demanding job requirements in short turnaround time, they are also versatile enough to handle a wide range of print applications with improved media handling and come packed with capabilities. With Konica Minolta's new proprietary Simitri® High Definition<sup>E</sup> (HD<sup>E</sup>) toner and Screen-Enhancing Active Digital IV (S.E.A.D IV) image processing system, near offset print quality can be achieved.

"For customers who are looking for the ability to scale, perform and deliver on demand across diverse needs in a faster turnaround time while maintaining superior colour reproduction, the new intuitive and intelligent bizhub PRESS C1070 / C1060 offers the perfect solution," said Mr. Jonathan Yeo, General Manager, Konica Minolta Business Solutions Asia.

The bizhub PRESS C1070/C1060 series includes advanced paper handling technologies for smooth print runs with the enhanced air-assisted Paper Feeder options (PF-602, LU-202) to eliminate paper jams. Konica Minolta exclusive IC-602 helps to streamline workflow management, and provide powerful print queue control and intuitive on-screen job editing capabilities to simplify work and speed output. The easy integration into existing offset workflows and the comprehensive range of in-line finishing options enable customers to meet complex demand and fast turnaround.

Engineered with the most advanced office solutions technology and built with utmost care and intelligence, the new Konica Minolta bizhub PRESS range effectively raises the bar for digital printing, presenting a powerful option to digital print providers, who want to save cost and time without compromising on the quality of their prints. Backed by a dedicated team who are ready to render the best service to help customers optimize their office environments, the new Konica Minolta bizhub PRESS range undoubtedly is the choice for the digital print providers who want it all.
