

40 years of the MARIA research reactor

Written by Business News

40 years is not much for a nuclear reactor. MARIA, the sole reactor in Poland is a research reactor operated in NCBJ Świerk near Warsaw primarily for physical research and to train staff for nuclear industry and radiation protection needs . It does not produce electricity but it does produce radiopharmaceuticals, special materials/radioactive sources for industry, environment protection and healthcare.

Read more <http://www.alphagalileo.org/ViewItem.aspx?ItemId=148275&CultureCode=en>