

Scientist look for nanostructures that allow compatibility between metal and human bone tissues □

Written by Business News

One of the goals of Cimav specialists is to develop biomedical implants needed in Mexico, as the ones existing in the domestic market are usually manufactured abroad.

Read more <http://www.alphagalileo.org/ViewItem.aspx?ItemId=148504&CultureCode=en>