

Technology to recycle all type of plastics without using water

Written by Business News

---

Traditionally, plastic recycling processes involve using a lot of water. In order to avoid this waste, Ak Inovex from Mexico developed a new green technology that doesn't require liquids, and has the capacity to process materials such as styrofoam, polystyrene and ABS (Acrylonitrile butadiene styrene) using the same type of customizable machinery.

Read more <http://www.alphagalileo.org/ViewItem.aspx?ItemId=148519&CultureCode=en>