

1.6 million euros from the DFG: Nok Culture study enters its third round

Written by Business News

The scientific team of the Institute for Archaeological Sciences, which has been researching the Nok Culture in Nigeria since 2005, can continue its successful work: The German Research Foundation (DFG) will support the total 12-year duration of the planned long-term project for another three years with 1.6 million euros.

Read more <http://www.alphagalileo.org/ViewItem.aspx?ItemId=149281&CultureCode=en>