

Bloomingdale's Unveils Its "Great" British Invasion

Written by Australian Business

NEW YORK, Sept. 12, 2013 /PRNewswire/ -- VisitBritain, the national tourism board, has teamed up with Bloomingdale's on a first-of-its-kind partnership showcasing the best of England, Scotland, and Wales via custom British travel packages promoted in-store, online and in the highly anticipated fall catalogs. These one-of-a-kind travel packages were inspired by the iconic Great Britain landscapes in which Bloomingdale's shot portions of their Fall men's catalogs, and will be available exclusively to Bloomingdale's customers.

Supported by Go-Today, each luxury travel package captures a unique personality of Great Britain: Royalty & Rock, Town & County, Opulence & Escape, and History & Legend.

Royalty & Rock: Iconic cities, rock Idols - from London's Abbey Road to Liverpool's Penny Lane, experience what inspired the British Invasion. While in London, live like royalty while staying in the luxurious St. Ermin's Hotel located in Westminster, just a minute's walk from St. James's Park. Learn how to make the drink made famous by 007 in the Martini Master Class at the Dukes Hotel, a favorite of James Bond author Ian Fleming. Take in the sights around the city in a private, guided tour in a stylish classic MINI Cooper. Before heading to Liverpool, toast with a glass of bubbly on board the London Eye, the world's largest cantilevered observation wheel.

Have your own British Invasion experience in Liverpool, home of the Beatles, where you can visit locations that inspired their songs from Penny Lane to Strawberry Field, listen to The Cavern Club Beatles play in The Cavern Club where the Beatles first performed and stay in the world's only Beatles' inspired hotel – the Hard Days Night Hotel.

Shoot locations: Westminster Bridge; Savile Row; East London

Town & County: From rolling green hills to tranquil coastlines and charming villages along the way, experience the best of England. Get a new perspective of London taking in all the iconic sites including Houses of Parliament and Big Ben on a relaxing cruise down the River Thames. Whether it's the Tower of London's risqué past or the enchantment of Kensington Palace, once home to Queen Victoria and
