GO Outdoors have a waterproof jacket to suit everyone.

Sinead Miller, Digital Marketing Manager, said: "GO Outdoors range of jackets will keep our customers warm throughout what is said to be a very cold and wet winter, with our 3 in 1, insulated and monsoon jackets customers will not need to worry about the weather. We wanted to give our customers a good discount opportunity so that they can get their winter wear in as soon as possible and with Christmas just around the corner we want to make buying outerwear as easy and as affordable as possible."

GO Outdoors has been selling outdoor clothing and adventure equipment for over forty years and are proud to sell some of the top market leading brands such as, Montane, Rab and Berghaus.

The 20% discount expires on December 9 2013 so customers should get their orders in quick as stock is expected to sell fast.
